Summary

It's a fact: A well-written appeal is your most effective tool for challenging an insurance claim denial. In this audio conference, presenter Tammy Tipton will provide 50 of Appeal Solutions' most effective Level and Level I Appeal Letters and share the strategies to make these appeal letters collect on unfair denials.

A nationally recognized authority on this topic, Ms. Tipton will explain, clearly and concisely, specific tactics for selecting and preparing the right appeal letter for a wide range of denials. She will also assist participants with understanding their legal rights and how to argue those rights effectively when carriers uphold denials unfairly. Gain insights into:

Key areas to be covered include:

- Winning the reimbursement war by using the 50 Appeal Letters provided during the audioconference
- Timely appeal submission and how our Level II letters enable you to meet appeal submission deadlines
- Selecting the most appropriate letter for each appeal and determining which state & federal laws to know and use
- Using state & federal laws to overturn benefit reductions
- Getting a move on stalled claims
- Obtaining detailed responses to your appeals instead of those frustrating form letters
